

1. copies of any correspondence, electronic or written, from any members of the British government or their representatives, to the BBC between January 2019 and December 2019 regarding Julian Assange.

2. copies of any correspondence, electronic or written, from any members of the British government or their representatives, to the BBC regarding an interview with former Foreign Secretary Jeremy Hunt about the arrest of Julian Assange on 11th April 2019. The link to the interview is here:
[https://twitter.com/BBCPolitics/status/1116297631519531009?
ref_src=twsrc](https://twitter.com/BBCPolitics/status/1116297631519531009?ref_src=twsrc)

%5Etfw

3. copies of any correspondence, electronic or written, from the BBC to any members of the British government, or their representatives, regarding the scheduling of the BBC interview with Jeremy Hunt around the arrest of Julian Assange on 11th April 2019.

4. copies of any correspondence, electronic or written, from the BBC to any members of the British government, or their representatives, regarding Julian Assange between January 2019 and December 2019.

Part 1

From: Newsdesk (Sensitive) <Newsdesk@fco.gov.uk>

Sent: 11 April 2019 11:15

To: [Redacted]@bbc.co.uk

Cc: PS Minister Morton - Action (Sensitive) <PSMorton@fco.gov.uk>; [Redacted]@fco.gov.uk>

Subject: RE: Interview Request from the BBC

Hi [Redacted],

We can accommodate this bid between 12-1pm at Millbank for a short clip.

Please let us know.

Thanks,

[Redacted]

Part 4

From: [Redacted]@bbc.co.uk

Sent: 11 April 2019 11:06

To: DUNCAN, Alan <alan.duncan.mp@parliament.uk>

Subject: Interview Request from the BBC

Hi there

We were hoping to speak to Sir Alan Duncan with regards to Julian Assange's arrest. Could you please let me know whether he is available for a radio interview whenever convenient in the next few hours?

Much obliged

[Redacted]

Broadcast Journalist, Newshour, BBC World Service

W1 NBH 03C | BBC Broadcasting House

Portland Place | London | W1A 1AA

Direct Line [Redacted]

Newshour is the award-winning news and current affairs programme on BBC World Service English, the

From: [Redacted]@bbc.co.uk>

Sent: 05 April 2019 06:34

To: Newsdesk (Sensitive) <Newsdesk@fco.gov.uk>

Subject: Julian Assange

Hello,

I'm following up reports from Wikileaks that Julian Assange is due to leave the Ecuadorian Embassy shortly.

Do you have a statement or any information about this?

Best wishes, [Redacted]

[Redacted] | BBC News Online

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/news/uk>

New Broadcasting House W1A 1AA

From: [Redacted]@bbc.co.uk>

Sent: 11 April 2019 11:24

To: Newsdesk (Sensitive) <Newsdesk@fco.gov.uk>

Subject: RE: Interview Request from the BBC

Hi [Redacted]

As I just spoke to [Redacted] I would like to reconfirm that we are expecting Sir Alan Duncan at our Millbank Studios for 12.15 for a pre recorded interview with our presenter James Menendez. We don't expect to keep him longer than 15mins. Thanks again for arranging this. Please send me a backup number for him or his assistant.

Best

[Redacted]

Broadcast Journalist, Newshour, BBC World Service

W1 NBH 03C | BBC Broadcasting House

Portland Place | London | W1A 1AA
Direct Line [Redacted]

From: [Redacted] @bbc.co.uk>
Sent: 11 April 2019 12:16
To: Newsdesk@fco.gov.uk
Subject: Re: Interview Request from the BBC

Hi there

Just to let you know that we are waiting in the studio in nbh for sir Alan Duncan. Is he on his way?

[Redacted]

Sent from my iPhone